

Nest Corporation Nominations and Remuneration Committee

Terms of Reference

The Nest Corporation Board (hereinafter 'Board') executes the functions¹ set out in the Pensions Act 2008 and the Nest Order and Rules. It cannot delegate matters which set the strategic direction of the organisation; the overall accountability for the trust; decisions in respect of the distribution of trust assets; the setting of investment strategy; and, matters that are vital for the overall security of the scheme assets. It may however delegate processes such as research, the consideration of issues and making of recommendations and the execution of approved decisions to competent persons.

The Nominations and Remuneration Committee (the 'Committee') is a Committee of the Board, from which it derives its authority, and to which it shall regularly report. The primary role of the Committee is to monitor that remuneration strategies and organisation culture enable Nest to attract and retain the required calibre of senior executives and wider staff, as well as to support delivery of the strategy agreed by the Board. The Committee will also provide oversight and challenge over the processes and framework to support sound corporate governance within Nest. The Committee shall have oversight of Nest Corporation, the Nest Scheme and any subsidiary undertakings as appropriate.

1. Role and Purpose

The Committee's key role is to:

- Monitor that Nest has the appropriate reward strategies in place noting in particular: remuneration policies²; succession planning and recruitment control, to attract, motivate and retain the required calibre of both senior Executive Committee members and wider staff;
- Monitor that Nest has policies and processes in place to develop and maintain the required capabilities, capacity and culture to run the corporation and deliver the agreed strategy; and
- Provide oversight of Nest's corporate governance arrangements by assessing whether overall governance arrangements are adequate, appropriate and operating effectively, to meet both Trustee and Public Corporation requirements.

2. Responsibilities

This document sets out the specific responsibilities of the Committee, including the decision-making powers as well as oversight role.

Chief Executive Officer ('CEO') of Nest Corporation

Other Matters

2.34 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is required.

3. Membership, Quorum, Attendance, Procedures

- 3.1 The Committee will meet per a schedule agreed by the Committee Members. Apologies for absence shall be given in advance to the Secretariat. Individuals who are unable to attend are invited to raise any points with the Chair in advance of the meeting.
- 3.2 The quorum for the Committee is two Committee Members. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee. Meetings may be held via electronic means and attendance via video or teleconferencing shall be deemed to be attendance in person.
- 3.3 The Chair of the Board shall not be Chair of the Committee. In the absence of the Committee Chair, the remaining Committee Members shall elect one of their number to Chair the meeting.
- 3.4 Decisions will normally be reached by consensus, but any Committee Member may call for a vote. Where necessary, voting will be by a show of hands and in any equality of voting, the Committee Chair of the meeting shall have a casting vote. This will not apply at Committee meetings where only two Committee Members are present, where a consensus must be reached before a decision can be taken.
- 3.5 All Board Members have attendance rights but have no voting rights unless they are a member of the Committee. Meetings of the Committee shall be called by the Secretary of the Committee at the request of the Committee Chair. The CEO, Chief Financial Officer and Director of People and Development shall be regular attendees of this Committee but will not have attendance rights or voting rights. The Committee may invite such other persons to attend its meetings, as it deems necessary.
- 3.6 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date, shall be forwarded to each member of the committee, any other person required to attend and all other Board Members, no later than five working days before the date of the meeting.
- 3.7 The Corporate Secretary of his/her nominee shall act as Secretary to the meeting and will ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues. The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.

4. General powers and duties

- 4.1 The Committee must ensure regular reporting back to the Board on matters within its remit, and should at least annually, review its terms of reference and recommend any changes to the Board for approval.
- 4.2 The Committee will produce a report on its activities to be included in the Nest Corporation and Nest Scheme Annual Report and Accounts.
- 4.3 The Committee may undertake any other task or activity which it considers is conducive to supporting the Board in the effective discharge of their duties.
- 4.4 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems may be appropriate within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 4.5 The Committee will have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Corporate Secretary for assistance, as required. The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain outside legal or other professional advice in relation to any matters or responsibilities as set out in this terms of reference document.
- 4.6 The Committee may delegate to an individual Executive such of its delegated powers as it sees fit but must document these delegations.
- 4.7 The Committee may only enter into agreements relating to matters which have been reserved to them.
- 4.8 The Committee may set its own operating procedures and monitor the effectiveness of its processes in line with its terms of reference and may review and make recommendations to the Board on changes to its terms of reference.
- 4.9 The Committee will review and approve individual Nest Corporation policies as set out in the policy list and its terms of reference.
- 4.10 The Committee will determine whether a potential conflict of interest raised by a Committee Member precludes that Committee Member participating in a discussion or involvement in taking a decision on a particular topic. The Committee must resolve unanimously that a conflict may be disregarded (In the Pensions Act 2008, the relevant sections refer to “disqualification for acting, Schedule 1 paragraph 13(3) – 13(5). Conflicts will be documented and reviewed regularly.
